What is a Sandblasted Design?

There are different ornamentations used to create a monument. Sandblast is one of them. When our stones are cut with stencils, the design is shaped and then sandblasted. Our monuments are custom made with double-processed work. Double-processed work may be time consuming but the work comes out better than single process. The simple difference is shaped verse flat. Leaves of flowers or hands are shaped so that there is maximum contrast and texture to the memorial. Lettering is done with steel so that it is brighter and easier for the eye to read.

Upgrades to the sandblasted design (such as hand carved roses) may be purchased at a REDUCED PRICE Special Pricing is available for online orders ONLY, to redeem Special Pricing in person please PRINT the special of your choice.

Designs may be modified to meet the rules and regulations of your particular cemetery. Once your order has been processed, we will send you a layout with the design and lettering for you to approve.

What should the monument say?

Our specials offered above include all the lettering you may wish to put on the stone.

An epitaph is a short phrase that is inscribed on a Memorial. This short text is used to commemorate your loved one with an expression of respect and love. Epitaphs are typically inspired by the person's accomplishments and life legacy. The most famous example of an epitaph is simply "Rest in Peace."

Please Note: Depending on the design you choose and the number of future burials, there may be a limited amount of space available for a long epitaph. Once your order has been processed, we will send you a layout with the design and lettering for you to approve.

Cemetery Fees

Each cemetery varies in price for fees. Cemetery Fee refers to foundation cost or work permits. St. Charles Monuments does NOT include cemetery fees in the total price of the monument because it is NOT a fee we are associated with.
